DeGaulle Moves To Avert Civil War

Meets With Premier

PARIS (UPI)—President Charles de Gaulle summoned Michel Debre to urgent last-minute talks today before making a major address which Frenchmen hoped would halt a headlong rush toward civil war over Algeria.

Debre hurried into the President's Elysee Palace at 4:05 p.m. (10:05 a.m. e.s.t.)

An hour earlier, de Gaulle had painstakingly recorded a speech for radio and television broadcast at 8 p.m. (2 p.m. e.s.t.) that probably was the most important of his career.

Headlines Tell Story

But there was fear that words alone would not be enough as the rebellious European settlers in Algeria tightened their hold on the city, strengthened their street barricades and hurled new defiance at Paris.

Headlines in Paris told the story: "France before the abyss" (Paris-Presse), "The paratroops hesitate" (France Soir), "Algeria, the unity of the nation and the equilibrium of the West are at stake" (Catholic La Croix).

In Algeria, virtually controlled by the European insurgents determined to keep that North African territory French at all costs, troops and settlers nervously waited for de Gaulle's speech.

Gen. Paul Ely, chief of the (Continued On Page 3 Col. 4)

Good Evening!

Algiers crisis explosive one.

It'll be interesting to see how President de Gaulle handles this one. In the next day or so we should know.

Always something happening around this globe of ours to keep you on your toes.

Well, we've got the swarms of hitchhikers off the Levittown Parkway and now maybe the gendarmes could give a bit of attention to the gas-happy lads and gals who have so little regard for the speed and traffic rules on this always - busy boulevard.

The attention and surveillance should come before there are some really serious accidents.

And we see where the Whittman Company, which makes candy, will build a $5,375,000 plant near the North Philadelphia Airport with jobs for 1,500 and with an annual payroll of $6,000,000.

So near to Bucks County, yet so far. Has this county simply given up on its industrial development movement it needs so desperately to provide our economy the strength and stability it requires?

It seems to us that our officialdom at every level and everybody concerned should start disassociating themselves from a lot of these flossy pie-in-the-sky ideas and begin all over again looking at the hard realities of the day.

Mr. Ike shot a mid-80 game at Palm Springs yesterday and is expected to do as well or better today.

If we had it to do all over again, we think we'd shoot for the White House. There, a fairways dubber has it made.

Colds, flu appear the rule rather than the exception hereabouts these days.

We figure there's little matter with anybody two weeks of solid winter with two feet of snow wouldn't cure.

A lot of gals keep their husbands poor by breaking things—ten's, twenty's, fifty's.

Easiest way to be a failure is to work at it.

Watch your driving.

At Coroner's Inquest

Tot's Pepper Death Ruled Accidental

A six-man Bucks County Coroner's jury reached a verdict of "accidental death" last night in the case of 21-month old Marcel Smallwood who died of "asphyxiation as a result of or due to the inhalation of pepper."

Marcel's foster mother, Mrs. Paul S. Forsberg, of 29 Nasturtium Lane, North Park, Levittown, put pepper on the infant's tongue as punishment for a dinner table temper tantrum.

Dr. Wilmer Trinkle, Bucks County Coroner, said that the case was discussed briefly at the inquest and most of the details were brought out. Death was determined by the jury to be accidental, he said.

The Forsberg hearing was closed to the public, the coroner said, because of the emotional state of Mrs. Forsberg. "She was very visibly upset and we wanted to minimize her discomfort," Trinkle said.

Thirty-seven character witnesses appeared in Mrs. Forsberg's behalf at the inquest. Many of the people were from the Fairless

Tax Booklets Are In Stock

A new shipment of booklets explaining the intricacies of the income tax labyrinth are once more available either by direct purchase at the Courier-Times office or through the mail.

Hills Methodist Church, where the Forsberg's worship. The Reverend Robert Pike, pastor of the church sent a letter to be read at the inquest. Reverend Pike is in Puerto Rico, and could not personally attend the hearing.

"No Finer Neighbors"

Other witnesses included neighbors of the Forsberg's. William J. Hein, of 27 Nasturtium Lane, North Park, Levittown called Mrs. Forsberg's character above reproach.

"I have all the confidence in the world in her as a mother. She's a neighbor and their are no finer neighbors than the Forsbergs. The verdict rendered by the jury was the only one they could have rendered," Hein said.

Another witness, Mrs. Ralph Smith, of 24 Nasturtium Lane, North Park Levittown, said Mrs. Forsberg had been crying at the inquest and that her eyes were swollen.

"All 37 character witnesses spoke highly of Mrs. Forsberg as a mother and a neighbor", the coroner reported.

Marcel Smallwood's sister, Denise, four, also placed in the Forsberg home, was sent to another home shortly after the accident.

"Must Assume Worst"

Dr. Trinkle said that he could see no reason why, after a thorough re-evaluation was made of Mrs. Forsberg, the child could not be returned to the Forsberg home.

"Denise was removed from the home at my suggestion, because we didn't know and couldn't tell until after the inquest whether malice or criminal negligence existed in the case.

"Until proven otherwise, we have to assume the worst, on the assumption that this could happen again, we had to remove the other child," Trinkle explained.

Mothers Get $13,719 In Area March

Mothers marching on disease for the "New March of Dimes" collected $13,719.23 in Lower Bucks County last night.

Final figures on all monies collected by the drive will not be available until next week, a campaign spokesman said.

In Bucks County, $22,709.58 was collected.

Mrs. Clarence B. Harrold, chairman of Women's Activities for the Bucks County Chapter of the National Foundation said that the foundation was very grateful for the Bucks County support of the New March of Dimes.

Year's Only Appeal

"Anyone not contacted last night, should send their contribution to the county chapter headquarters in Doylestown," she said.

In the Levittown, area, residents in approximately 15,000 homes in the 41 sections of the development contributed $6,281.84.

All funds raised by the Mother's March and the other New March of Dimes projects will be used to provide assistance to persons suffering from birth defects, crippling arthritis, and polio. This is the only financial appeal made by the National Foundation during the year.

Public Nuisance

Wayward Guernseys Find Way To Court

A jury listened to complaints of the wanderings of Mrs. Cleo Smith's herd of guernsey cows in Bucks County criminal court this week and found her guilty of being a public nuisance.

Mrs. Smith has a dairy farm at Line Lexington, near the Bucks-Montgomery County line. Neighbors complained that the cattle destroyed their corn last spring after leaving her farm to roam onto theirs.

Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite deferred sentence.

Other court cases included several motorists who pleaded guilty to drunken driving and were sentenced. They were:

Sentenced Drivers

Michael Occek, 2812 Frankford Ave., Philadelphia, $200 fine; Robert Moore Langdon, Furlong, $250 fine; Paul H. Detty, 48 Ruby Lane, Levittown, 30 days in Bucks County Jail.

1960 Census Result

Township Schools To Lose $100,000

Bristol Township school district will lose close to $100,000 in state reimbursements as a result of the 1960 census, it was reported last night.

The census will show that the township has a population of over 30,000 (actually it is about 60,000) which will automatically change its status to a second class district. The township is now a third class district.

Horace Lowell, supervisor of the Bureau of School District organization of the Department of Public Instruction, explained how the change will affect the township to 50 person in the Ralph Waldo Emerson School, Levittown.

He spoke at a joint meeting of the Associate School board and the Joint Council of Bristol Township P.T.A's.

Three school board members and Dr. Guy F. Eberhart, superintendent of school, other administrators were in the audience.

Changes Listed

Some of the changes listed by Lowell were:

The township will lose its reimbursement on transportation costs. School officials later estimated this loss at $50,000.

The township will lose the supplemental payments it now gets as the result of Delhaas jointure (Continued On Page 3 Col. 2)

Snowy, Rainy Weekend Due

A watery weekend, at best, can be expected with the possibility of snow tomorrow morning. No appreciable accumulation is predicted, thanks to above-freezing temperatures.

Rain is expected to begin tonight, changing to snow tomorrow morning. It will remain mostly cloudy today turning windy and colder tomorrow. Skies are expected to clear late tomorrow.

Temperatures will climb to the middle 40's today, dip to the middle 30's tonight. A high near 40 is expected tomorrow.

High yesterday was 42 at 3 p.m., the low this morning, 37, at 6 o'clock.

The area is expected to escape hazardous highways like those in the mid-west and New England where rain and snow accompanied by below freezing temperatures harrassed motorists.

Middletown Cracks Down On Vandalism

Middletown Township Police Chief Howard Shook said today he is ordering a crackdown on vandalism in the township's park areas, particularly in the green belt sections of Levittown.

Chief Shook warned that the township has an ordinance allowing fines up to $100 for vandalism in park areas.

Township police plan to step up their routine checks of the park areas and to question youngsters suspected of the vandalism.

The crackdown was announced as residents complained of the numerous incidents of destruction in the green belt or wooded areas of the township, especially Levittown.

In many cases, police found 15-year-old trees destroyed by youngsters with hatchets.

The vandalism is causing destruction on the organized tree planting program carried on in the park areas by girl scouts and other civic groups for more than a year.

Chief Shook points out that the township ordinance prohibits damage to trees and shrubbery.

County Units To Review Sewer, Water Needs

Preliminary survey results of a sewer and water needs study of Bucks County by Albright and Friel, consulting engineers, will be reviewed in Doylestown Monday by officials of the Bucks County Planning Commission and Health Department and Neshaminy Valley Watershed Association.

Bilking Of Bank Charged

A Levittown man was arrested by the FBI yesterday charged with embezzling $404.91 from a Philadelphia bank where he formerly worked.

The suspect, Joseph J. Gaughan, Jr., 34, of 71 Tall Pine Lane, Thornridge, Levittown, was released in $500 bail, to await Federal court action. He was released following a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Edward W. Furia on charges of violating the Federal Reserve Act.

Gaughan is accused of embezzling $404.91 from funds repaid by customers of the Provident Tradesmen's Bank and Trust Company, on their loans. According to the FBI the embezzlement took place between July 1, 1958 and July 31, 1959.

Gaughan was a unit manager in charge of the bank's consumer credit department at the 12th and Chestnut St. branch. He resigned from the bank in October. The irregularities were not discovered until after he left.

Gaughan was working as a bartender in a tavern at Route 413 and Newportville Road, Levittown. He was picked up by FBI agents outside the bar, yesterday afternoon.

The father of two children, Gaughan is separated from his wife.

Flu Epidemic Hits Europe

LONDON (UPI) — An influenza epidemic sweeping across Europe kept millions of Europeans away from jobs and schools today. Germany, France, Italy and Switzerland were hardest hit.

Six deaths were recorded in Switzerland during the week ending Jan. 23. In Britain, where the flu has not reached epidemic proportions, four nuns in a Roman Catholic convent in Liverpool died two weeks ago in what was described as an isolated outbreak.

Thus far, the epidemic has not reached the severity of the 1957-58 outbreak. A Belgian health official said the epidemic appeared to be caused by an Asian-type virus but of a milder variety than in 1957-58.

Your Income Tax Primer: 5 Game Of Padding Expense Account Has Taken New Slant

(Fifth of 12 Chapters)
By RICHARD A. MULLEN
Written for NEA Service

The old game of trying to pad an expense account so that an eagle-eyed boss would not catch a personal item hidden in it took on a new slant when income taxes became so high.

The game was to get a tax break by charging personal items such as Florida vacations for pleasure to an expense account. This wasn't too difficult if the company was small and there was no independent boss to check on expense accounts.

To crack down on expense account abuses, the Internal Revenue Service drew up some new rules which went into effect last year.

The first step in applying these rules is to determine which of the following two categories you are in:

Employees who were required to and did submit an expense account voucher or other accounting to their employers which listed their business expenses.

Employees who were not required to or did not account to their employer for business expenses.

If you fall in the second category, then you must file on Form 1040W or Form 1040 and you must attach thereto a statement showing:

1. The total of all amounts received as advances or reimbursements, including amounts directly or indirectly charged to the employer through the use of credit cards; and

2. Your occupation, the number of days away from home on business, and the total amount of business expenses paid or incurred in 1959.

'The Cool World' To Premier Thursday

"The Cool World", Lester Osterman's production of a new play about contemporary life in New York's East Harlem, will hold its world premiere Thursday evening, at the New Locust Theatre, Philadelphia. The opening night curtain will be at 8 p.m.

"The Cool World", which is based on a novel by Warren Miller, has been co-authored by Miller and the play's director Robert Rosen, who is credited with authoring such screenplays as "Island In The Sun", "Body and Soul", the Academy Award-winner "All The King's Men" and other top films.

"The Cool World" will have matinees every Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30 with evening performances at 8:30 p.m.

HE MUST ATTACH A DETAILED STATEMENT TO HIS RETURN

HE DOES NOT HAVE TO ATTACH A DETAILED STATEMENT TO HIS RETURN

curred in 1959. The expenses must be broken down into broad classifications like transportation, meals and lodging away from home overnight, entertainment expenses, and other business expenses.

If the advances or reimbursements received from your employer exactly equal your business expenses, it is not necessary to make any further entry on the tax return. If the employer's payments to you exceeded your business expenses, the excess must be reported as income on page 1 of Form 1040 or 1040W. If your expenses exceeded the employer's payments, the excess may be deducted as provided on page 6 of the 1040 instructions and page 3 of the 1040W instructions.

The above rules do not apply to employees who are required to submit detailed expense accounts to their employers and receive only enough to cover their expenses. It is not necessary for such employees to attach any statement or list their business expenses on the return, and they are free to use either of the three return forms.

Where reimbursements exceed expenses, Form 1040 or 1040W must be filed and the excess must be included in the employee's income. If expenses exceed the reimbursements and the employee wants to deduct the excess, he must submit with his return the information specified in paragraphs 1 and 2, above, relating to employees in the second category and he must file on Form 1040 or 1040W.

To "account to your employer" means to give the boss a detailed written report of your expenditures. However, detailed reports are not needed if your employer gives you not more than $15 per day for living expenses and not more than 12½¢ per mile for travel in the U. S. If you are related to your employer, you may have to prove your expenses to Internal Revenue even though you do "account to your employer."

Tomorrow—Deduction for illness.

Diphtheria Hits Adults More Than Children

HARRISBURG UPI — Health Secretary Charles L. Wilbar said today more adults than children have been afflicted with diphtheria in Pennsylvania during the past three years.

Wilbar said 10 of last year's 17 cases were in the adult age group. He attributed immunization of children in infancy as the reason for the decline in youngsters getting the disease.

Although the number of diphtheria cases in Pennsylvania has declined from 2,248 in 1935 to 17, Wilbar said immunization can reduce the total to zero.

"Since immunization can prevent diphtheria, there is no reason why Pennsylvania should have a single case of the disease," Wilbar said.

'Story Lady' To Highlight Lions Dinner

The Levittown Lions Club will hold its annual father-son-daughter night 7 p.m. Monday at Glen Lake Inn, Old Lincoln Highway near Woodbourne Road, Middletown Township.

Kris Nanavaty, program chairman, reported that Marie Maxwell, the "Story Lady," will entertain the children with stories "Father's Day," "Picnic With Father," "The Bear And The Beaver," and "The Fast Sooner Hound."

She is noted for her dramatized stories and lectures. She has appeared on radio and television and has been guest lecturer at Trenton State College on the art of story telling.

Tony Scalzane, the 15th new member, was inducted by Charles Abell at the last meeting. Don Gazzara, announced that the club will celebrate its sixth charter night Feb. 19 at Willow Grove Naval Air Station officers club.

Tickets can be obtained from Sandy Oppenheimer, 24 Border Rock Road, Blue Ridge, Levittown. Table reservations should be made through Nanavaty, 30 Inbrook Road, Indian Creek, Levittown.

GREAT THREAT

Atherosclerotic heart disease, which causes more than 400,000 deaths of men and women of all ages during a single year, is the greatest single threat to men aged 45 years or more.

Concert Pianist Plays Tomorrow

Tomorrow evening, the Bucks County Community Concerts Association will present its second concert of the season.

The artist will be Lee Luvisi, concert pianist, who will be heard in the auditorium of Ben Franklin Junior High School, Levittown. Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m.

Pianist Luvisi is a remarkable young musician who has been completely American-trained and has established himself as the best of the young pianists, an association spokesman said. He has appeared as soloist with many of the leading symphony orchestras of the country and has been heard in Beethoven's "Emperor Concerto" with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, under the baton of Leonard Bernstein.

Loud Praise

During 1959, Luvisi was soloist in the world premiere of Efram Zimbalist's Concerto in E flat major for piano and orchestra with the New Orleans Philharmonic Orchestra with Alexander Hilsberg as conductor.

Newsweek magazine, which covered the event, was loud in its praise of Luvisi and noted that he was a young man on the way to fame, the spokesman said.

During the 1959-1960 season he will appear as soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra, under Eugene Ormandy.

WHEN YOU
DRIVE
THRIFT

Thrifty, a welcome traveling companion, steps in when you select the revolutionary Corvair.

The economy begins with the compact Corvair's initial low cost, and every mile you drive is money in the pocket. Your gas dollars will now go farther... because the Corvair delivers miles and miles per gallon. And when you change oil, the refill is only four quarts.

Because of Corvair's low weight (1,335 pounds less than conventional cars) and extra-low price, you'll realize added savings in many states in licensing and insurance costs.

When winter comes, just let it. Corvair's air-cooled six-cylinder engine rides you forever of antifreeze bills. Corvair has no radiator so you can forget about leaks and worn hoses.

Important as economy is, it tells only part of Corvair's glad story. It is a delight to handle and you couldn't ask for a smoother ride.

The aluminum engine in the rear supplies willing power to the rear wheels, giving superior traction when it's needed most. (Transmission parts and rear axle drive gears are neatly contained in a single compact unit.)

As you glide along, you'll marvel at how easily the Corvair steers (no power assistance needed there) and the sure braking action front and rear. That's the payoff on precise weight distribution.

Corvair makes parking a cinch.

You'll find yourself tucking it into spaces you never looked at twice before.

There's room enough inside for six adults and the floor is practically flat for remarkable comfort. A wonderfully handy folding rear seat makes it virtually a station sedan.

There's really nothing quite like the ride you get in the Corvair. Independent suspension at every wheel, Corvair's "spring quartet," wafts you over bumps with feathering ease. Engine noise and heat are largely left behind you. (The engine's in the rear, you know.) For coziness in cold weather Corvair has a fast, efficient aircraft type heater.

And the Corvair is as pleasing to the eye as it is to the pocketbook. Its singular styling is new from the road up.

Interiors are sprucely tailored with two-tone upholstery of patterned cloth and vinyl. Exteriors are available in nine solid colors and seven two-tones.

We modestly submit, and are certain you'll agree, the Corvair is the product of inspired precision engineering—the compact car you'll recognize as the one you've been waiting for.

Why don't you have your Chevrolet dealer introduce you to Corvair today?

Jury Acquits Man Involved In Accident

Wesley Taylor, 30-year-old Trenton used car lot employee, yesterday convinced a Bucks County jury he had permission to drive a car which was involved in an accident in December.

The jury acquitted Taylor of driving a car without the owner's permission. The car was taken from a lot on Calhoun St., Trenton, where it was consigned by its owner, Walter Briggs, Allentown, N.J.

The lot owner, Stanley Slomski, 403 Connecticut Ave., Trenton, said he had asked Taylor, who lives on State St., to take the car to a dry place and adjust the brakes, but had authorized him to take a ride in Lower Bucks County.

Taylor said he was often allowed to use the car and other cars on the lot.

Bristol Township Patrolmen Robert Lawrence and Leonard Stoughton said the car was involved in a two-car crash on Route 413 near Delhaas High School at 3 a.m. Dec. 12.

They said Taylor at first told them a soldier he met in a Morrisville tavern had been driving, but later admitted he was the driver. After the accident Taylor was fined for speeding and for driving after his license expired.

Bristol To Accept Bond Bids Feb. 23

Bristol Borough Council will open bids for the sale of $600,000 in non-debt revenue bonds to finance construction of a new borough water plant on Feb. 23.

A resolution to advertise for bids on the revenue bonds was approved at a meeting of borough council last night.

The non-debt revenue bonds are based on a pledge of anticipated revenue from the borough water department which services consumers in the borough and large non-Levittown sections of the township.

The bonds are not affected by the debt limitations of the borough.

with Tullytown. This was later estimated at $45,000.

The township will get two additional school directors, increasing the board to nine members.

To Be Elected

The secretary of the board will not be able to be a member of the board. Louis C. Souder, a school director, now holds the $2,500 a year job as board secretary.

The superintendent and other top administrators will be elected by the school board for a four year term. Now the administrators serve indefinitely. Their jobs are secure under tenure.

Lowell said it would be to the township's advantage to form a complete merger with Tullytown.

Credit Union Declares 3 Pct. Dividend

The Courier-Times Federal Credit Union last night declared a three per cent dividend on all shares held by members on Dec. 31, 1959.

Members of the credit union at their annual meeting elected five members to the board of directors and a three man credit committee.

Elected to the board of directors were Howard Ashenfelder, one year; Joseph Caravan and Josephine Poyner, two years; Richard Ludwig and Joseph Bright, three years. Members of the credit committee are Grover Friend and Gordon Parker, two years, and Otto Bruno, one year.

before it became a second class district.

The state gives extra supplemental payments, based on the number of teaching units, for mergers. Lowell explained that under a merger there is one school board, one reimbursement fraction, and one tax rate for all the areas which merged. A merger must be approved by voters.

Dr. Eberhart said the township is missing $135,000 in state reimbursements because it is not a merged district.

He also said both the Bristol Township and Tullytown school boards have discussed the possibility of merging, but no agreement has been reached.

R. Philemon Stout, township school board president, said the problem is "How do we sell the merger idea to Tullytown. What will we be able to offer Tullytown if they merge with us?"

Levittown Driver Rams Parked Car, Injured

A Levittown man was lightly injured when his car crashed into a parked auto at Bridge and Washington Sts., Morrisville, last night.

Morton Feinberg, 40, of 1 Top-hill Lane, Levittown, required one stitch in his upper lip after he suffered the cut when the car he was driving collided with a parked car at 9:15 p.m.

Patrolman William Kerner issued a summons for reckless driving to Feinberg.

In the parked car when the accident happened was Joseph Flacinski, 44, 103 Clarion Road, Morrisburg. He was not injured.

French general staff and one of de Gaulle's pillars of strength, was reported to have been dispatched from Paris Thursday night to the secret "command post" set up outside Algiers to direct future operations.

The possibility grew with every passing moment that the rebellion centered in Algiers might explode into a full-scale revolution in France itself.

This, however, was considered far more remote than it was in the days of May, 1958, when another Algerian rebellion toppled the Fourth Republic and brought de Gaulle back to power. This time, most Frenchmen are on de Gaulle's side, although the army still was a questionable factor.

The country appeared to be rallying behind de Gaulle. It was reported that more than 300,000 letters and telegrams had arrived at the presidential palace, most of them expressing popular support of the president.

Government circles spun in an almost frenzied round of activity. Premier Michel Debre called an informal cabinet meeting without the president two hours before the de Gaulle broadcast. He met non-stop with ministers of the armed forces, justice and scientific research.

Conflicting—and frightening—reports poured in constantly from Algiers. Insurgents in Algiers became more defiant of the government. Insurgents in Oran captured the city hall without interference by the army. But some war veterans in Algiers called for support for de Gaulle.

Levitt Gives $275,000 To N. J. School Board

Will Decrease Levittown Tax Levy

Levitt and Sons Inc., developers of Levittown, contributed $275,000 to finance the 1960-61 Levittown, N. J. budget.

In a letter to the board of education last night, William J. Levitt revealed that the sum will be contributed upon request by the school board. It represents a $225,000 increase over his donation of $50,000 to the 1959-60 budget.

The contribution increased the miscellaneous revenue item in the budget from $2,700 to $277,700 and decreases the total local tax levy to $603,508.07 from $878,508.

Tax Rate Near $5

The latter change in the budget means that the local tax rate will be between $4.80 and $5.10. The exact tax rate cannot be determined until the municipal budget is adopted. The present school tax rate is $1.83.

Levitt's announcement came at a public hearing on the $1,312,147.77 school budget which was attended by only 10 persons in the Somerset Park School.

The hearing on the budget is mandatory before action can be taken on adopting or rejecting it.

The board answered the questions of two residents before unanimously adopting the budget with the changes made by Levitt's contribution.

Savings, Loan League Assets Top $75 Million

The assets of all savings and loan associations in Bucks County including the federal and local associations, amount to between $75 million and $80 million dollars.

This was announced at a meeting of the Bucks County Savings and Loan League this week, held at the Warrington Golf and Country Club, with 14 of the 21 organizations in Bucks County represented.

The impact this vast amount of money in the county's associations has had on making mortgage money available to the people of Bucks County, was described by members as "remarkable."

New President

The meeting was presided over by the new president, Herman Zattler, of Washington Crossing, an officer of the Yardley Building and Loan Association.

The new president spoke of the outstanding service rendered during the past two years by A. Marlyn Moyer, Jr., of Trevese, who served as president of the county league during the first two years of its organization.

Moyer is an official of the Trevese Savings & Loan Association.

It was also announced that Alfred B. Patton, Doylestown publisher, has been appointed secretary of the league. He is an officer of the Benevolent Savings and Loan, Eddington.

One of the outstanding objectives of the league has been to coordinate the operations of serving and loan associations in Bucks County. The league was created with the idea in mind that it is the best way to exchange and furnish information to builders, realtors and show the general public in the county how to save money.

$15 Million More

The estimated total assets of between $75 and $80 million dollars is approximately $15 million more than last year.

The next meeting of the league will be held April 1. There will be another in July and a joint meeting with the Bucks County Board of Realtors in the fall. All three meetings will be at the Warrington Golf and Country Club.

William M. Kershaw, president of Bucks County Lodge 53, Fraternal Order of Police, has announced that local FOP members are now soliciting ads for their annual program book distributed at the Lodge's banquet each year.

Middletown Township Police Sergeant Anthony Fergione is the ad book chairman. Police officers will be the only persons soliciting local businessmen for the ads. They will be in uniform, or have proper identification with them. Policemen will seek ads from entrepreneurs in their own locales.

Falls Township police are still steaming over the poor cooperation received from U. S. Steel's Fairless Works in the investigation of the double fatality auto accident at the plant Tuesday.

Local law enforcers were not called into the case until shortly after 1 a.m., when the Lower Bucks County Hospital notified them of the accident. After the plant protection officers were pressured by Deputy Coroner, John C. Black, the police were finally given the story. The accident occurred at 10:30 p.m.

Mothers marching for the "New March of Dimes" last night collected a great deal of money.

The collection of the 17,000 public health survey forms distributed by local Girl Scouts last weekend did not fare as well. Only 5,000 survey forms were collected last night, less than one third the number handed to local homemakers.

The forms have been designed to indicate the extent of birth defects, crippling arthritis, and the efficacy of the Salk vaccine. They are anonymous-type forms, and a quasi-scientific study being undertaken throughout the United States.

These forms can be mailed to the National Foundation in Doylestown, the address is on the face of the card.

Gil Custer, Falls Township police sergeant, said yesterday that the family pet, a bunny named "Pinkie" has been returned to his hutch.

Henry Carlson, of 14 Nectar Lane, North Park, Levittown, one of Gil's neighbors, saw the rabbit trying to get into the pen of his rabbit last Monday morning. Carlson's rabbit is a female.

Carlson placed "Pinkie" in the pen with his "rabbit." He fed the two animals, and they seemed very happy together, and appeared to be "oh so much in love," Carlson said.

Reading that Custer had lost a rabbit in Saturday's column, he saw that Pinkie was escorted home. From the looks of things, the Custer and Carlson families may become grandparents in the near future. The Custer children were thrilled about the return of their rabbit and the coming event.

How's Pinkie? He just sits on his hutch with a far away look in his eyes, said Custer.

Movieland reaction to the flat-chested look decreed by new Paris fashions ranged from Jayne Mansfield's prediction it would bind girls up like Ubanigs to Kim Novak's warning it might forecast another war. Reading from left to right, these amply-endowed stars gave these opinions. Mamie Van Doren (left) (37-22-35) said, "If you're a woman, you might just as well look like one. Janet Leigh (2nd from left) (36-21-35) said, "You can't hide the fact we Kim Novak (right) (37-25-37) said, "If we do go to that extreme in our clothes, we should watch what happens next. Look what happened after the 20's—war and politics." All are shown in file photos.
